

Wednesday, February 1, 2012 6:00 – 8:00 PM - RIQI Offices, 235 Promenade St., Providence, RI

EHR Vendor Demo Night: eClinicalWorks

Presenters: Milind Shah & Melissa Alexander

Both Milind and Melissa have been with eClinicalWorks for over 7 years and are based at the company headquarters in Westborough, Massachusetts. Milind has years of experience as a trainer and product specialist and is a key contributor of the Meaningful Use readiness and development team at eCW. Over the years Melissa has been actively involved in various projects and implementations in the state of Rhode Island as well as nationally. Melissa spends time at the MAeHC office in Providence each week thus she is available to practices for local support as needed.

If you are evaluating electronic health record systems to implement in your practice, please join us for a demonstration by eClinicalWorks. eClinicalWorks will be showcasing their unified PM/EMR solution as well as Patient Portal, eClinicalMobile, P2P, eClinicalMessenger and eBO. Throughout the demonstration the presenter will be touching upon what is required for Meaningful Use. Additionally you will have an opportunity to learn about the exciting new features which are forthcoming in 2012 such as an iPad app and Scribe. At the conclusion of the demonstration, the presenters will be available to you for any product specific questions or to inquire about implementation and workflow recommendations.

About eClinicalWorks eClinicalWorks® is a privately held leader in the ambulatory clinical systems market.
